Items 1.01 and 2.04. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement; Triggering Events That Accelerate or Increase a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement.

As previously disclosed, ACA Capital Holdings, Inc. provides credit protection to counterparties through our Structured Credit line of business, principally on highly rated liabilities of structured financings, including layers of risk of single tranche transactions and fully distributed CDOs, MBS and ABS transactions. We generally assume credit risk in our Structured Credit line of business by entering into credit swaps with various counterparties, the required payments under which are insured by, and payable under, financial guaranty insurance policies issued by our financial guaranty insurance subsidiary, ACA Financial Guaranty Corporation ("ACA FG"). Additionally, our insured credit swaps typically are secured by contingent collateral arrangements. Pursuant to these arrangements, we agree to post collateral to secure our transactions, primarily in the event we experience a corporate credit event such as a downgrade of ACA FG, to below an "A-" financial strength rating. As of September 30, 2007, the total Structured Credit notional portfolio was $69.1 billion and the amount that would have been required to post under the contingent collateral arrangements in the event of a corporate credit event was at least $1.7 billion.

On December 19, 2007, Standard & Poor's ("S&P") downgraded its financial strength rating of ACA FG to 'CCC' (Developing Outlook) from 'A' (CreditWatch Negative). That same day, ACA Capital and its direct and indirect subsidiaries entered into a forbearance agreement with its Structured Credit and other similarly situated counterparties. Under the agreement, the counterparties have waived all collateral posting requirements and termination rights relating to the rating of ACA FG under their respective transaction documents including any credit support annexes and similar agreements. The forbearance will remain in effect until January 18, 2008. As such, ACA FG is not required to post collateral as a result of S&P's actions during the forbearance period.

Prior to S&P's actions on December 19, ACA FG also entered into a Letter of Representations and Agreements (the "Letter Agreement") and a Consent Order (the "Consent Order") with the Insurance Commissioner for the State of Maryland (the "Commissioner"), ACA FG's insurance regulator in its state of incorporation. Under the Letter Agreement, ACA FG agreed to provide certain documentation and other reports to the Maryland Insurance Administration (the "MIA"). ACA FG also agreed not to engage in certain activities without providing prior notice and opportunity to object to the MIA including, without limitation, pledging or assigning any assets, paying dividends or engaging in certain material transactions. ACA FG is similarly limited under the forbearance agreement from engaging in activities consistent with the Letter Agreement and must also comply with financial covenants. Under the Consent Order, ACA FG agreed not to object to, and, if requested, to consent to, a petition by the Commissioner to institute delinquency proceedings in the event that S&P downgraded ACA FG's financial strength rating and the forbearance agreement was not signed by all of the counterparties. In view of the execution of the forbearance agreement, the Commissioner has not instituted any such proceedings.
