2 An act relating to insurable interests; amending s.
3 627.404, F.S.; providing definitions; providing for the 4 requirement of an insurable interest in an insured at the 5 time of an insurance contract; providing for actions by 6 the insured to recover benefits under such a contract paid 7 to a person lacking such an interest at the time such 8 contract was executed; requiring the consent of the person
9 insured for certain contracts; providing exceptions;
10 providing applicability; providing intent; providing an 11 effective date.

12
13 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

14
15 Section 1. Section 627.404, Florida Statutes, is amended to 16 read:

17 627.404 Insurable interest; personal insurance.--

18 (1) Any individual of legal capacity may procure or effect 19 an insurance contract on his or her own life or body for the 20 benefit of any person, but no person shall procure or cause to be 21 procured or effected an insurance contract on the life or body of 22 another individual unless the benefits under such contract are 23 payable to the individual insured or his or her personal 24 representatives, or to any person having, at the time such 25 contract was made, an insurable interest in the individual 26 insured. The insurable interest need not exist after the 27 inception date of coverage under the contract.

28 (2) For purposes of this section, the term:

29 (a) "Business entity" includes, but is not limited to, a

30 joint venture, partnership, corporation, limited liability
31 company, and business trust.

32 (b) "Insurable interest" as to life, health, or disability
33 insurance includes only the following interests:

34 1. An individual has an insurable interest in his or her
35 own life, body, and health.

36 2. An individual has an insurable interest in the life,
37 body, and health of another person to whom the individual is 38 closely related by blood or by law and in whom the individual has 39 a substantial interest engendered by love and affection.

40 3. An individual has an insurable interest in the life,
41 body, and health of another person if such individual has an 42 expectation of a substantial pecuniary advantage through the 43 continued life, health, and safety of that other person and 44 consequent substantial pecuniary loss by reason of the death,
45 injury, or disability of that other person.

46 4. An individual party to a contract for the purchase or 47 sale of an interest in any business entity has an insurable 48 interest in the life of each other party to such contract for the 49 purpose of such contract only.

50 5. A trust, or the trustee of a trust, has an insurable
51 interest in the life of an individual insured under a life
52 insurance policy owned by the trust, or the trustee of the trust 53 acting in a fiduciary capacity, if the insured is the grantor of 54 the trust; an individual closely related by blood or law to the 55 grantor; or an individual in whom the grantor otherwise has an 56 insurable interest if, in each of the situations described in 57 subsection (5), the life insurance proceeds are primarily for the 58 benefit of trust beneficiaries having an insurable interest in

2008648er

59 the life of the insured.

60 6. A guardian, trustee, or other fiduciary, acting in a 61 fiduciary capacity, has an insurable interest in the life of any 62 person for whose benefit the fiduciary holds property, and in the 63 life of any other individual in whose life the person has an 64 insurable interest so long as the life insurance proceeds are 65 primarily for the benefit of persons having an insurable interest
66 in the life of the insured.

67 7. A charitable organization meeting the requirements of s.
68 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code, as amended,
69 has an insurable interest in the life of any person who consents 70 in writing to the organization's ownership or purchase of that 71 insurance.

72 8. A trustee, sponsor, or custodian of assets held in any 73 plan governed by the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 74 1974, 29 U.S.C. ss. 1001 et seq., or in any other retirement or 75 employee benefit plan, has an insurable interest in the life of 76 any participant in the plan with the written consent of the 77 prospective insured. An employer, trustee, sponsor, or custodian
78 may not retaliate or take adverse action against any participant 79 who does not consent to the issuance of insurance on the 80 participant's life.

81 9. A business entity has an insurable interest in the life,
82 body, and health of any of the owners, directors, officers,
83 partners, and managers of the business entity or any affiliate or 84 subsidiary of the business entity, or key employees or key 85 persons of the business entity or affiliate or subsidiary, if 86 consent is obtained in writing from the key employees or persons
87 before the insurance is purchased. The business entity or

2008648er

88 affiliate or subsidiary may not retaliate or take adverse action
89 against any key employee or person who does not consent to the 90 issuance of insurance on the key employee or key person's life.
91 For purposes of this subsection, a "key employee" or "key person"
92 means an individual whose position or compensation is described 93 in s. 101(j)(2)(A)(ii) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

94 (3)~~(1)~~ An insurer shall be entitled to rely upon all 95 statements, declarations, and representations made by an 96 applicant for insurance relative to the insurable interest which 97 such applicant has in the insured; and no insurer shall incur any 98 legal liability except as set forth in the policy, by virtue of 99 any untrue statements, declarations, or representations so relied 100 upon in good faith by the insurer.

101 (4) If the beneficiary, assignee, or other payee under any 102 insurance contract procured by a person not having an insurable
103 interest in the insured at the time such contract was made 104 receives from the insurer any benefits thereunder by reason of 105 the death, injury, or disability of the insured, the insured or 106 his or her personal representative or other lawfully acting agent
107 may maintain an action to recover such benefits from the person
108 receiving them.

109 (5) A contract of insurance upon a person, other than a 110 policy of group life insurance or group or blanket accident, 111 health, or disability insurance, may not be effectuated unless,
112 on or before the time of entering into such contract, the person 113 insured, having legal capacity to contract, applies for or 114 consents in writing to the contract and its terms, except that 115 any person having an insurable interest in the life of a minor
116 younger than 15 years of age or any person upon whom a minor

117 younger than 15 years of age is dependent for support and 118 maintenance may effectuate a policy of insurance on the minor.

119 (6) For purposes of this section, the signature of the 120 proposed insured, having capacity to contract, on the application
121 for insurance shall constitute his or her written consent.

122 (7) This section does not apply to any policy of life
123 insurance to which s. 624.402(8) applies.

124 ~~(2) A charitable organization that meets the requirements~~
125 ~~of s. 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended,~~ 126 ~~may own or purchase life insurance on an insured who consents to~~ 127 ~~the ownership or purchase of that insurance.~~

128 Section 2. The amendments to s. 627.404, Florida Statutes,
129 made by this act are intended to clarify existing law.

130 Section 3. This act shall take effect July 1, 2008.
