Programme

Bermuda

- 1.00pm Registration and Light Lunch
- 1.30pm Introduction from the Chair
- 1.35pm Antitrust Law Developments in the Insurance Industry
Ruth Dowling
This presentation will spotlight the latest legislative attempts to repeal the McCarran Ferguson exemption of the business of insurance from federal antitrust scrutiny, antitrust litigation by the State of Connecticut claiming that certain types of reinsurance facilities violate the antitrust laws and other recent cases and emerging trends.
- 2.00pm Security for Reinsurance Obligations
Richard Spiller, Geoffrey Etherington and Steven Trumper (Marshall Diel & Myers)
A discussion of the issues and options in relation to security for payment of reinsurance recoverables. Topics to be covered include: US proposals to reduce collateral requirements; set-off in insolvency; letters of credit; trusts; pledged and charged accounts; and funds withheld.
- 2.50pm UK Asbestos Issues: Trigger, Allocation... Does This Sound Familiar?
Richard Hopley
The UK's asbestos liability problem is proportionately more severe than the US's. This presentation will review recent developments that will affect how that huge UK liability will be borne. The issues will sound familiar, but the approach is different.
- 3.15pm Coffee & Refreshments
- 3.35pm Everyone's Nightmare: Privacy and Data Breach Risks.
Laurie Kamaiko
A discussion of the increasing exposures presented by the growing risk of privacy and data breaches, and the potential effect of new U.S. state and federal privacy regulations on insurance companies and insureds in a wide range of lines of business, from financial institutions to retailers to educational institutions to healthcare providers.
- 4.00pm The Continuing Evolution of the Follow-the-Settlements Doctrine in the US
Vince Vitowsky
In addressing reinsurance disputes, courts and arbitration panels in the US continue to give central importance to the follow-the-settlements. This segment will examine recent case law developments which reflect the fluid and evolving nature of the doctrine.
- 4.25pm Open Forum and Chair's Closing Remarks
- 5.05pm Drinks Reception
- 6.00pm Close

We welcome all delegates to join us for a light lunch at 1.00pm and drinks reception at 5.05pm.
